For many years, I created this calendar with my dear friend Eduardo Gelbstein, who left us on July 19, 2015. As we mark ten years since his passing, I am forever grateful for the enduring inspiration he provided during our long and fruitful friendship. Thank you, Ed!

About the Calendar

If you were asked to select 12 keywords to guide and improve your daily activities, which ones would you choose?

I found that this task is more challenging than it seems, and this year's calendar reflects the results of my personal exploration.

I hope it inspires you not only to consider each word and quote, but also to reflect on which concepts might be most helpful to you in times of need.

This yearly calendar has become a cherished tradition for those who have received it in the past. Their appreciation motivates me to continue discovering new, inspiring quotations (and images) to accompany you throughout the year.
