Traveling through Italy

accompanied by Latin wisdom

#VIVERE ALL ITALIANA

About the Calendar

With this calendar I like to share quotes, interests, places that are dear to me. Year after year it has become a tradition that I always try to honour.

This year I wanted to continue the project started in 2021 to reveal some lesser known places in my home country, Italy. This time I concentrated on the so called "borghi", which are quaint little villages with an interesting history and architecture, where time seems to have stopped. There are plenty of them all over Italy.

The calendar has always been appreciated by those who have received it in the past: this is great motivation for me to try to find new interesting quotations (and images) that will accompany you throughout the year.

The quotations that I chose this time all refer to Latin wisdom. There is so much we can learn from our past!

For many years, I have created this calendar with my friend Eduardo Gelbstein. He left us on July 19, 2015. I will forever thank him for the great long lasting inspiration he gave me during our long and fruitful friendship. Forever thank you, Ed!

An aerial photograph of a mountain valley. In the foreground, a cluster of traditional stone and wood houses is situated on a grassy slope. A prominent stone church with a tall, dark spire stands in the center. The middle ground shows a winding road and more houses on a hillside. The background is dominated by steep, forested mountains with some trees showing autumn colors. The overall scene is peaceful and scenic.
